#AimHighSucceedBeHappy – www.westmeadows.org.uk

Friday 5th October 2018

Dear Families,
October already – where does the time go? We have had a very busy week at West Meadows. I must begin by apologising for the Harvest Date Change – for F2 Year 1 and Year 2 children Harvest is now Friday 19th October at St. Peter's at 9:15am. The original date clashes with the Year 6 Visit to Conover and because we need to send 7 staff there and cover medical needs, a change of date was the only sensible option.

I hope you have managed to see the proofs of School Photograph Day. The day is busy, intense and hectic; huge thanks to Mrs. O'loughlin and Mrs. Ibbotson for leading such an organised event. We moved the day forward after parents' requests and it worked extremely well.

A very busy week for Year 3 – the Egyptian day was amazing – check the website for details; we also said goodbye to a superstar - Good luck in your new school.

I must say how thrilled I am with the Macmillan Coffee Morning total; £494 raised for this great cause is just amazing.

I hosted senior figures from St. Mary's Academy Trust again this week as they conducted their review of Leadership at West Meadows; I was delighted with their findings. School looked terrific and we certainly impressed them. The year's targets are set and we will strive to become even better still!

It is Cross Country for Years 3 and 4 so good luck to them – I know they will all do us proud.

Have a fabulous weekend.
