#AimHighSucceedBeHappy – www.westmeadows.org.uk

Friday 21st September 2018

Dear Families,
We have had another super week at West Meadows. The children and staff impressed a visiting party of professionals with our work across the Arts; something central to our school's plans and indeed individual character. A huge well done to Ms. Steele and Mr. Ormondroyd for their leadership in this key area. I am thrilled with the opportunities we offer our lovely children across the Arts. In PE, we were visited by our friend 'Bike-It Dave.' We have cycling, scooting and walking sessions lined up across school – I am particularly keen on the learn to ride work he will do with parents and children from Years 1 and 2, look out for this opportunity.

I hope everyone is enjoying the twitter feeds and of course our fantastic website. Technology is constantly updating and showcasing some of the wonderful opportunities and experiences our children are having in school.

I met with senior staff from St. Mary's Academy Trust this week to discuss our School Improvement Priorities, they were impressed with the atmosphere and work ethic in and around school – I was very proud to show them around, we're looking good!
We enjoyed a Woodwind Demonstration Assembly this week too. If your child is interested in the flute, clarinet or saxophone then please see Mr. Ormondroyd asap. We also hope to offer guitar lessons starting very soon – again see the maestro to secure a place. Finally, I must draw your attention to the Macmillan Coffee Morning. I am always in awe of the generosity of our #WonderfulCommunity in terms of donations and cakes! I look forward to sharing a brew with many of you for this magnificent cause. Mr. Child is aching for a slice or two of Victoria Sponge!
As always, have a wonderful weekend
