Not every parent has Twitter. I think there should be a Facebook for other parents as well as Twitter.

Prefer texts as I don't often go Twitter and sometimes miss important info.

Would like to see more homework.

No longer receives texts but It was a good way of communication.

Xxxx is incredibly happy at school, he tries in his class where he is challenged, supported and welcomed every day. He loves school and is always keen to share his learning. Thank you! Xxxx has had a fantastic year so far. Her reading and confidence have really progressed and grown. There is so much inspiration and excitement provided by the teacher which engages her every day.

Sometimes too much homework.

Happy with progress of Children so far. Happy to be in school always and enjoy the range of activities in there.

School have been super helpful over the last 3 months, which has been difficult at best, cannot thank the staff enough.

Fab school.

My three love this school and all staff and friends. They have really progressed since starting here. Thank You all x.

My child is happy at this school and enjoys the things she learns.

Year 6 do not get a lot of time for dinner and not a lot of parents have internet Twitter updates.

Parent need more time given when things are happening in school. More marvellous Me thing as very little is coming though.

Do not agree with children losing out of P.E if they do not get Their spellings right.

I don't receive any notifications despite giving my phone number numerous times.

Lovely school and children are happy!

If I don't use Twitter then I don't get to information. Very limited and I feel the children get a lot of extra work to do at home.

All my three girls love coming here to West Meadows. The school is brilliant and this is proven by how much the children learn and love coming.

Struggle to find things at a website and I don't always use Twitter so don't find things out in time. Not useful for me. Prefer the text system.

Don't get texts anymore.

Don't recall receiving any recent Marvellous Me notifications or remember what it is about. Could I have more info please.

Since Xxxx started school after changing from a previous school, he has gained self-confidence, his self-esteem and self-image are now positive. He has become happy and proud of who he is and that is largely down to school philosophy implemented from the head. We are very happy with these dramatic changes which have now enabled him to feel in a better frame of mind for learning. He has told me that he loves his teacher.
