Friday 5th July 2019

Dear Families,
As I write, I reflect on yet another week that has been action packed from start to finish! Last Friday, I was accompanied by an Ofsted Inspector all day. We focused on work in EYFS and Key Stage 1. I am thrilled with the report and can NOT praise our staff too highly. The report endorses everything we strive to provide at West Meadows and most pleasingly, makes a huge notice of the amazing relationships shared between staff and children here. We love the children and this is not simply a job to our staff. This has shone and I could not again be any prouder to serve and lead our amazing families and staff teams.
Some more fantastic opportunities for our children and the return of Mrs. Walton do not even come close to covering the events. The week began with our Key Stage 1 Cricketers enjoying the facilities at West Bretton. It really is a beautiful ground and to see our children do so well at cricket was an absolute joy. This is of course my club and it was extremely emotional to see our very own superstars gracing the turf that I tend to fail on!
Our lovely Foundation Stars have all accessed a special family Wild Walk this week. Thank you to all of the EYFS staff and Mrs. Roberts for their sterling work with our youngest children. It really is a joy to behold. Thank you to the families who were able to join us; the children love seeing you in school and so do the staff.
The Key Stage 2 Music Festival was a superb showcase of our lovely Year 5 Stars. What a performance! I sincerely hope many of them continue with music as they are a talented bunch. Thanks again to the parents for supporting us.
Today has seen Year 6 visit Meadowhall and Los Iguanas in particular – this was a free experience and Mrs. Dewson even managed to persuade other companies to donate! They took the train from Elsecar and look to be having a great day. It is golf at Hoyland Common today, let us hope for a top performance in the sunshine. I must also wish Miss Jones and Mrs. Walton the warmest welcome back thoughts – you have been missed and it is lovely to see you both back in school. As always, have a lovely weekend and remember the sun screen! It looks to be a warm one.
