#AimHighSucceedBeHappy – www.westmeadows.org.uk

Monday 10th February 2020

Dear Families,
Apologies for the late West Meadows Weekly. This is down to staff sickness at the end of the week (myself included!) It also meant we cancelled the Derby versus Hoyland Common too! Thank you to Mrs. Beever and Mrs. Dewson for looking after me – hopefully, I am back on form!
Many thanks to everyone who has supported the Book Fayre. It has been a wonderful opportunity to buy a range of beautiful books. Thank you to Mr. Smith and Mr. Mitchell for their hard work in its organisation. Reading is a huge priority at West Meadows.
I was lucky to attend an EYFS Conference last week with the EYFS Teachers. It was fantastic. What I love to see is the use of great ideas and both classes were rapid in tweeting their delivery of ‘Helicopter Stories.’ A brilliant way to develop our children’s language and vocabulary.
The Year 3 Flower Arranging looked amazing. Thank you to Mrs. Walton and her lovely Mum for this opportunity. The children absolutely loved it. We have also welcomed Mr. Webster to help in Year 4. He is a final year student at Sheffield Hallam and will learn a huge amount from Mrs. Brown.
It was brilliant to host Mrs. Cook the Chair of St. Mary’s Academy Trust in school for a full morning. She thought the children were wonderful and we received many positive comments from her. I hope you all enjoyed the weekend. I shall write again on Thursday.

A Wonderful Cause

A Year 5 Superstar has requested that we raise funds for children’s cancer charity ‘Cliv Sargent.’ After being so grateful for their sterling work as a family, it would seem impossible to resist such a magnificent and worthy cause. Several items will be on sale from Monday 10 Feb.
We shall be holding a raffle on Weds at the Musical Extravaganza with great prizes available!
Joseph
Our tickets for Years 3, 4 and 5 performing Joseph will be on sale from Friday, direct from The Academy Theatre Birdwell. The performances are at 7pm on Weds 18th and Thurs 19th March 2020. Their number is 01226 744442 – an amazing couple of nights in store!

The Lion King
What a response! From wondering whether or not we could make this trip a reality – we’ve now ordered an extra coach! Many thanks to Mrs. O’loughlin for her sterling work. The visit will be open to Years 3, 4, 5 and 6 (next year’s groups) and is selling quickly! So please, check Parent Pay and sign up for this amazing opportunity.

Grange on Games - @WMPPrimarySport
Unfortunately, we have had to cancel today’s visit to Hoyland Common in the football league. We shall rearrange. This is due to staff sickness.
Well done to last week’s footballers. We lost a very tight game versus Greenfield. A great afternoon’s entertainment.

Maestro On Music - @WMPPrimaryMusic
Next Week’s Musical Evening Starts at 5pm all children to return at 4.30/4.45. Tickets are £2 on the door, please ensure that your child brings lyric booklets, music and instruments for the rehearsal next Wednesday afternoon. There will be no after school Choir next Wednesday due to the concert as this gives the children chance to go home and have something to eat before it starts.
