Our learning

Sacred Texts: The Qur'an teaches Muslims how to:

- worship God
- how to live good lives
- how to treat other people Hafiz are Muslims who learn parts of the Qur'an by heart to recite to others. Many Muslims do this today as a way of praise to Allah. Hafiz are highly regarded and respected.

The Qur'an is written in Arabic so many Muslims will be taught how to read Arabic so they can access the Qur'an and become closer to Allah.

Special Places: The Muslim place of worship is a mosque.

Prayer (Salat or Salah) is one of the Five Pillars of Islam. Muslims are called to perform salah five times a day. When Muslims pray, they perform sets of movements and gestures. They can carry out salah in the mosque, at home, work or anywhere that is clean and facing Mecca using a prayer mat. Prior to salah, the ritual wudu must be carried out to ensure they are clean before prayer.
