Dear Families,
 In school this week we have been extremely busy at West Meadows. We are extremely sad to have lost the services of our lovely Mrs Ibbotson. She will be a huge loss to us, but won't be a stranger forever as she's taken a position in the central office where she will work alongside Miss Johnson; we know that she will be looked after! Goodbye Mrs. Ibbotson and thank you for everything.
 At last we have seen a break in the weather. I hope that everybody gets a chance to enjoy some much needed sunshine next week in the garden. Hopefully, the summer activities will be set to resume!
 I hope everybody is looking forward to a very busy end to the year. The highlight will undoubtedly be the school's production of Joseph and his Technicolour dream coat at the Academy Theatre, Birdwell. Mr Ormondroyd has worked incredibly hard - I cannot wait for this musical extravaganza!
 Finally, I hope you all have a wonderful half term and take care of yourselves. We all look forward to seeing you after a well-earned holiday. I know that Mr. Mitchell is particularly looking forward to topping up his tan.
