Dear Families,
Here we go for the final half term! I hope that everyone enjoyed the holidays and the seasonal weather. I know I did. A trip to the Premier League Darts Final and two days at Yorkshire Cricket made life seem more normal again and the sun just makes it! Anyone who got away in half term, I'm so pleased the weather was great for you. Our country is beautiful and the weather is the only thing that lets us down at times.

Next week is Men's Mental Health Week. On Tuesday we shall do a sponsored event – the male staff this is..... and this will be coupled with a NON UNIFORM day on Friday. A small donation to Prostate Cancer will be the fee. Friday shall be a COME ON ENGLAND/ SCOTLAND theme day ahead of the match in the evening – what a day! This Sunday England begin and I am SO excited! I never learn.....

Next week is Creative Arts Week in School – look out for some spectacular learning opportunities. Many thanks to Mrs. McCormack for its organisation. It will be brilliant. Thank you to everyone who is remembering the vigilant rules that we are still adhering to in school. No updated guidance means no updates!

Have a wonderful weekend and enjoy some more scorching weather!

Goodbyes

I am sad to say that 2 amazing colleagues shall be departing West Meadows at the end of the year. In alphabetical order, Mrs. Brown and Mrs. O'Loughlin. Mrs. Brown is a phenomenal teacher who has done so much for our lovely school, its families and me. She will now spend more time with her family, enjoy cheaper holidays and not worry about maths! Mrs. O'loughlin – what can I say? One of my true lieutenants and just the most fantastic character who brightens all of our days! Enjoy the school runs Mrs. O! It has been an honour calling you 'one of us' for 22 yes 22 years! West Meadows will not be the same without you!
