

Summer 1 Sikh Dharam whole school progression document.

Y1 Sikh Dharam - Summer 1: End of topic assessment questions
Learning about religion:	I can describe my special book and say why it is special to me.
Learning from religion:	I know that the Gurdwara is a special building for Sikhs.
Learning about religion:	I can list the places I 'belong' to and talk about ways in which this is shown. I can talk about other special outward signs eg football teams.
Learning from religion:	I can describe my own experience of celebrations: - Clothes - Food – Preparations.
Learning from religion:	I can respond through talk, pictures, role-play my understanding of 'special people'.
Learning from religion:	I can describe some Sikh values.

Y2 Sikh Dharam - Summer 1: End of topic assessment questions.
Learning about religion:	I understand that the Guru Granth Sahib is a special book for Sikhs.
Learning from religion:	I can describe how to behave in the Sikh Gurdwara.
Learning from religion:	I can name the 5 ks.
Learning from religion:	I can describe what happens at a Diwali celebration.
Learning from religion:	I can tell you why Guru Nanak is important to Sikhs.
Learning about religion:	I can tell you about a famous Guru who tried to protect others. I can say why he is a great role model.

Y3 Sikh Dharam - Summer 1: End of topic assessment questions
Learning about religion:	I can name the special book for Sikhs and why it is important to Sikhs.
Learning from religion:	I understand that the Gurdwara is a special a place of worship for Sikhs and can tell you how you should behave in a Gurdwara.
Learning about religion:	I can describe some Sikh values.
Learning from religion:	I can tell you why Sikhs celebrate Guru Nanak's birthday.
Learning about Religion:	I can tell you why the Sikh Gurus are special to their faith.
Learning from religion:	I can make links between the Sikh values and times in my own life when I have protected or helped others, or when others have helped and protected them.

Y4 Sikh Dharam - Summer 1: End of topic assessment questions
Learning about religion:	I can tell you why Guru Arjan is special to the Sikh faith.
Learning from:	I can describe some artefacts found in the Gurdwara.
Learning from religion:	I can describe the Sikh beliefs about God.
Learning about religion:	I can describe a Sikh celebration. I can describe the similarities and differences to a celebration from another faith.
Learning from religion:	I can tell you a Famous Sikh story about one of the 10 Gurus.
Learning from religion:	I can describe some Sikh beliefs and teachings about equality, tolerance and service.

Y5 Sikh Dharam - Summer 1: End of topic assessment questions
Learning about religion:	I can list a set of rules about how to treat the Guru Granth Sahib.
Learning from religion:	I can tell you why the five Takhts are important for Sikhs.
Learning about religion:	I can list the prohibitions for Sikhs.
Learning from religion:	I can describe one of the Sikh Holy Days.
Learning from religion:	I can describe how the stories from Gurus inspired Sikhs.
Learning from religion:	I can state how I can serve others individually, as a class, school, locally and Globally.

Y6 Sikh Dharam - Summer 1: End of topic assessment questions
Learning about religion:	I understand that the Guru Granth Sahib is treated like a living Guru and can describe how the sacred book must be treated.
Learning from religion:	I can describe why the Golden Temple is a special place for Sikhs.
Learning from Religion:	I can describe how the Gurdwara is used by the community.
Learning from religion:	I can describe what happens on a Sikh Holy day and why.
Learning from religion:	I can describe why the 10 Gurus are role models for the Sikh community.
Learning from religion:	I can give you an example of global equality and inequality.	